THIS school, now permanently established and in Quaker Poet of Amesbury : This school, now permanently established and in good condition, will continue under the instruction of CHAS. A. CURRIER, Principal, and MISS MARY A. JEWELL, Assistant.

Miss Jewell, a graduate of Oberlin Female College, comes highly recommended as a scholar and teacher. Sho possesses rare musical attainments, as well as a knowledge ut all the branches of a polite. education. With this valuable accession to the faculty, we hope to make this school second in none and worthy the patronage of all. Special attention will be given to the formation of classes for those wishing to take "the full course of study," and also for those who wish to prepare for teaching in our common schools.

Classes will be so arranged that students can be admitted at any time. The school year will be divided into four terms of cloven weeks each, commen-Spring Term ..... January 16, 1860 | Summer | April 16 1860, | Fall | September 2, 1860, | Winter | November 26, 1860. TUITION:

WATCHES! THEY ARE FAR SUPERIOR TO THE

ENGLISH LEVERS: And are infinitely the CHEAPEST AND BEST WATCH Ever manufactured. For sale at W. P. GRISWOLD'S. MAUMER CITY, Ohio, Dec.9th, 1898-31

Fold the hands, the work is over! Cost the watching eyes with tears; Let the poor heart, overstearing. Rest nike from hopes and fears,

Hopes, that saw with sleepless vision, One and ploture, fixting slow; Pears that followed, vague and nameless, Lifting back the veils of snow.

For thy brave one, for thy lost one, Truest heart of woman, weep! Owning still the laye that granted Unto thy beloved sleep.

Not for him that hour of terror. When the long ice battis o'er-to the sunless six his connades Deathward tred the Polar shore.

Spared the cruel cold and famine, Spared the fainting hear's despair— list but that could mero, grant him? What but that has been toy prayer?

Dear to thee that last memorial, From the care beside the coat Exerners the month of roses Shall be a sucred time to thee!

Sad it is the mournful yew-tree O'er his siumbers may not wave; Sad it is the English daisy May not blossom on his grave.

But his tomb shall storm and winter Shape and fashion year by year-Pite his mighty minisoleum Bleck by block, and tier on tier.

Guardian of its gleaming portal Shall his stainless bonor be, While thy love, a sweet immortal, Hovers o'er the winter sea! - Independent.
